

O. A. S. Panel Delivery or Undertaker's Body

Loading space back of driver's seat 90 or 96 inches

O. A. S. Ambulance Body

Loading space back of driver's seat 90 inches long, 43 inches wide

Equipped with cot and two folding seats

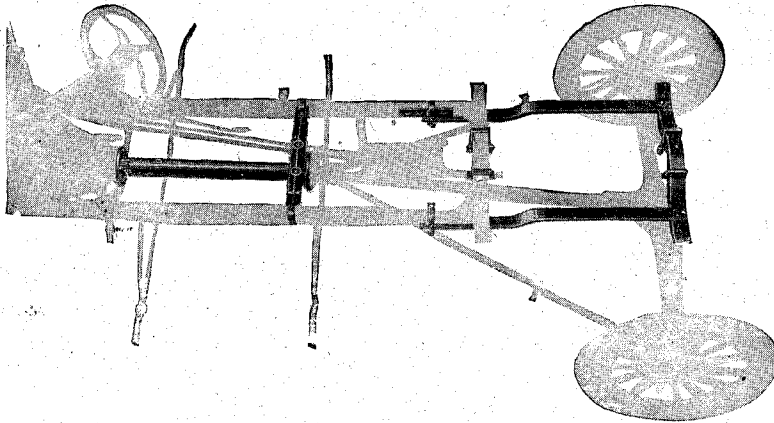

Onondaga Auto Supply Company, Inc.

353 East Onondaga Street

Syracuse, New York

Distributors for Central and Northern New York

H. & D. Extension for Ford Cars

*The only practical device for increasing the commercial efficiency of a
Ford*

With a wrench, a hammer and a few hours of spare time, you can extend a new or a used Ford Chassis 15 or 30 inches, converting the 100-inch Ford into a 115 or a 130-inch wheel base without deviating the slightest from the Ford construction. It is then ready to be fitted with a Delivery Body of any type desired and put in service as the most efficient, economical and altogether satisfactory 1000 to 1500 lb. Truck obtainable. The H. & D. Extension for Ford Cars will do all this for you without any cutting, machining or drilling, and without, in the slightest, weakening the chassis' construction. If anything, it strengthens it and furnishes the one sound method of extending the commercial usefulness of a Ford.

Easily Exchanged

After using the Ford Chassis to the limit of its usefulness in commercial work, the H. & D. Extension may be removed and installed on a new chassis, while the old chassis can be put back into its original form in a few hours. The H. & D. Extension is designed to provide room for a profit paying load of the light and bulky parcels that are characteristic of fully 60 per cent of the retail business.

Elimination of Overhang

Everyone who has already put a commercial body on a Ford Chassis will be glad to have the wheel base lengthened, as it means a saving in tires, springs and axles, for with the present short wheel base the overhang is so great that the load is carried directly above or behind the rear tires. With a long wheel base, the load is more equally distributed, and is carried easier, prolonging the life of the car indefinitely and keeping it a stranger to repair shops.

Fully Guaranteed

The H. & D. Extension is not an experiment, but has been thoroughly tried and proven in actual service. It is fully guaranteed against any defects in workmanship and material. The illustrations attached are from pictures taken of Fords with the H. & D. Extension that have been in operation in some instances as long as eighteen months.

Onondaga Auto Supply Company, Inc.

353 East Onondaga Street

Syracuse, New York

Distributors for Central and Northern New York